25X1A 2. Comment. It is believed that the third companies planned for the tank battalions cannot be activated at present because of the high number of vacancies in personnel. The regiment is also short of the SP gun battalion which, according to the Soviet pattern, is included in the T/O. On the other hand, the regiment has a surplus of 27 tanks which are not provided for in the present T/O. It is believed that more tanks will be assigned only after an increase of the personnel strength. It is also
